Dear Parent:

The Andrews ISD is sharing the enclosed information about the district and your child's campus with you as part of its obligations under the Federal No Child Left Behind Act of 2001.

The following information is now available on the District's web site at this link:

<http://www.andrews.esc18.net/>.

- Assessment results for the district and campuses in the aggregate and disaggregated by race/ethnicity, gender, disability status, migrant status, English proficiency, and economically disadvantaged showing two-year (2006-2007 and 2007-2008) trend data for each subject and grade testes.
 - by performance level,
 - with a comparison between annual objectives and actual performance for each student group, and
 - including the percentage of each group of students not tested.
- Graduation rates for secondary school students.
- Performance for school district and campuses on adequate yearly progress (AYP) measures.
- Number and names of Title I schools identified as in need of improvement, including the state of improvement and AYP indicator missed for any schools identified for improvement.
- Professional qualifications of teachers in the LEA and campuses, including the percentage of teachers teaching with emergency or provisional credentials and the percentage of classes in the district and campuses that are not taught by highly qualified teachers, including a comparison between high- and low-poverty campuses within the district.

If you have difficulty accessing the information from the web site, hard copies of the reports about the information available at the district office or through the campus principal. If you have questions about the information, please contact Special Services at 523-3640.

Sincerely,

Bobby Azam, Superintendent
